COUNTRY East Germany FECUNITY INFORMATION REPORT NO.  KYP Evacuating the Weisswasser Troop Training Crounds.  25X1  EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED  DATE OF CONTENT.  DATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED 17 July 1953  REFERENCES  1 ENCLOSURES (No. & NFE)  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occupied to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.  (1 2. to be made available for the KVP at the Weisswasser railroad Station. They were scheduled to be made available. They were sche			er te sammen kristan op om begrenning væren i Armente er i 18		terrane se se mer paner pener er men er er er er en se se se	ur ynggagarniyang yaydig willian nggar yegil o' mag 'alland band abad	FLP let
TOPIC SIVE Seventating the Weirewasser Troop Training Grounds.  25X1  EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED  DATE OF CONTENT  DATE OF CONTENT  DATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED 17 July 1953  REFERENCES  1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occurried to capacity by KVF in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.  1 low wooden buildings would be built. 1  2. on 15 June 1953, 30 converted boxcars had to be made available for the KVF at the Weisewasser rathroad station. They were acheduled to be loaded at night on 15 June and upon departure of this train, additional cars oxcert care for anyment of heavy weapons had to be rade available. The standard of the troop training grounds would again be occurred by Soviet tank units. 1  3. A Soviet kommendature on Hegel Promenade in Moissumerer which was staffed with 12 colidars wearing black-bordered claret epaulets was the only Soviet unit in the town during the period  4. From 16 to 18 June 1953, Camp Weisenmaser was vacated by KVF, Removable equipment of the units was stored in the ration supply depot. Fartial Law was declared in Weissumerer on 17 Var, KVF petrolled the streets. On 18 May, the town was enclosed by 12 T-34/85 tanks lake enaulest restored order in the town. Nachine guns verre emplaced outside the town. Protoverhicles see at the komendatura.  1. Comment, On 9 June 1953, Rechten was occumied by an estimated 2500 Final particular was also observed from 12 to 14 June. Butli 12 June the occupation was also observed from 12 to 14 June. Butli 12 June the occupation was also observed from 12 to 14 June. Butli 12 June the occupation was also observed from 12 to 14 June. Butli 12 June the occupation of the troop training grounds planned prior to the uprising, Rather, it is believed that the units left upon completion of their training.  1. Comment, The RVF in East Ger any was probably faced unexpectedly with the riots and was aler	COUNTRY			10570 /13: CIA-RI SECURITY I	NFORMATION		2:
EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED  DATE OF CONTENT.  DATE OF CONTENT.  DATE OBTAINED  DATE OFFARED  17 July 1953  REFERENCES  REMARKS  25X1  25X1  1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occurried to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 nen. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.  125X1  1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occurried to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 nen. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.  1. To be made available for the KVP at the Weisewasser railroad station.  They were scheduled to be loaded at hight on 15 June and lupon departure of this train, additional cars except cars for antipetent of heavy weapons had to be rade available. the troop training grounds would again be occupied by Soviet tank units.  3. A Soviet kommendatura on Hegel Promende in Weisewasser which was staffed with 12 soldiers wearing bisch-bordered claret epaulets was the only Soviet unit in the town during the period  4. From 16 to 18 June 1953, Camp Weisewasser was vacated by KVF.  Removable equipment of the units was stored in the ration supply depot. Fartial law was declared in Weisewasser on 17 782, KVP patrolled the stroots. On 13 1say, the town was enclosed by 12 7-3/4/8 tanks that the units are stored in the ration supply depot. Partial law was declared order in the town. Hother guns very explained outside the town. Potorvehicles seen at the komendatura  1. Comment. On 9 June 1953, Nochten was occunited by an estirated 2500 soldiered in the town of their training.  1. Comment. The KVF in East Ger any was probably faced unexpectedly with the riots and was alerted.		KVP Evacuating		wasser Troop Tr	aining Ground	s.	nanchinarijanile esaminingili casul estilenili ilikuli ilikuli ilikuli ilikuli ilikuli ilikuli ilikuli ilikuli
DATE OF CONTENT.  DATE OBTAINED  DATE PREFARED  1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Mochten was occupied to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.  25X1  25		25X1				-
DATE OF CONTENT.  DATE OSTAINED  DATE PREPARED  17 July 1953  REFERENCES  1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  25X1  25X1  1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occupied to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.  10 wooden buildings would be built.  12. In your disparture of this train, additional ears oxcopt care for sniplent of heavy weapons had to be made available. The troop training grounds would again be occupied by Soviet tank units. 1  3. A Soviet kommendatura on Hegel Promenade in Moisswasser which was staffed with 12 soldiers wearing flack-bordered claret epaulets was the only Soviet unit in the town during the portod  4. From 16 to 18 June 1953, Camp Meisswasser was wacated by KVP. Removable equipment of the units was stored in the ration sumply depot. Fartial law was declared in Moisswasser on 17 May. KVP petrolled the streets. On 18 May, the town was enclosed by 12 T-34/85 tanks	EVALUATION.	The second secon	PLA	CE OBTAINED		manuface V provided data data	2
DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 17 July 1953  REFERENCES  1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X  25X1  25X1  1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Mochten was occurried to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was undor way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.  10 wooden buildings would be built.1  2. on 15 June 1953, 30 converted boxcars had to be made available for the KVP at the Meisswasser railroad station. They were scheduled to be loaded at night on 15 June and upon departure of this train, additional cars except cars for simplement of heavy weapons had to be read eavailable. They were scheduled to be loaded at night on 15 June and staffed with 12 soliders wearing black-bordered claret epaulets was staffed with 12 soliders wearing black-bordered claret epaulets was the only Soviet unit in the town during the period  4. From 16 to 18 June 1953, Camp Weisswasser was vacated by KVP, Removable equipment of the units was stored in the ration supply depot. Fartial law was declared in Weisswasser on 17 May. KVP petrolled the streets. On 18 May, the town was enclosed by 12 T-34/85 tanks black eraulets restored order in the town. Machine guns were emplaced outside the town. Potorvehicles seen at the komendatura  1. Comment. On 9 June 1953, Nochten was occupied by an estimated 2500 soliders coccupation of the camp grew, and bilieting equipment as well as fuel arrived. The first occupation was also observed from 12 to 14 June. Until 12 June the occupation of the camp grew, and bilieting equipment as well as fuel arrived. The first occupation of the camp grew, and bilieting equipment as well as fuel arrived. The first occupation of the troin of the training. Rother, it is believed that the units left upon completion of their training. Rother, it is believed that the units left upon completion of their training. Rother, it is believed that the vist left upon completion of their training.				25X1		der-terminer lagge per kapane kende sendenskelde	ng, wakepitanang kana katalanan aktological distribution di manganan aktologica di mangan
25X1  25X1  1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occupied to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.  10				DATE PREPARED 17 July 1953
25X1  1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occupied to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.  10 June 1953, 30 converted boxcars had to be made available for the KVP at the Weisswasser railroad station. They were scheduled to be loaded at night on 15 June and lupon departure of this train, additional cars oxert cars for snipment of heavy weapons had to be made available. The troop training grounds would again be occurred by Soviet tank units. 1  3. A Soviet kommendatura on Hegel Promenade in Weisswasser which was staffed with 12 soldiers wearing black-bordered claret epaulets was the only Soviet unit in the town during the period  4. From 16 to 18 June 1953, Camp Weisswasser was vacated by KVP. Removable equipment of the units was stored in the ration sumply depot. Fartial law was declared in Weisswasser was vacated by KVP. Removable equipment of the units was stored in the ration sumply depot. Fartial law was declared in Weisswasser was vacated by KVP. Removable equipment of the units was stored in the ration sumply depot. Fartial law was declared in Weisswasser was vacated by KVP. Removable equipment of the units was closed by 12 T-34/85 tanks  About 120 soldiers were sumpled of the town. Weisswasser was vacated by KVP. Removable equipment of the town. Weisswasser was vacated by KVP. To black caulet restored order in the town. Machine guns were emplaced outside the town. Fotorvehicles seen at the komendatura.  1		•				8 J. J.	÷ 🐠
25X1  1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occurried to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.  1. low wooden buildings would be built.  2. low low or to be made available for the KVP at the Weisswasser railroad station.  1. they were scheduled to be loaded at night on 15 June and upon departure of this train, additional cars except ears for support of heavy weapons had to be made available. The troop training grounds would again be occupied by Soviet tank units.  3. A Soviet kommendatura on Hegel Promenade in Weisswasser which was staffed with 12 soldiers wearing black-bordered claret epaulets was the only Soviet unit in the town during the period  4. From 16 to 18 June 1953, Camp Weisswasser was vacated by KVP. Removable equipment of the units was stored in the ration sumply depot. Partial law was declared in Weisswasser on 17 Fay. KVP petrolled the streets. On 18 Fay, the town was enclosed by 12 T-34/85 tanks  14 Low		1.	DEC MO 9 TV	OEN *	•
25X1  1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occupied to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.    1		ENGLOSO	RES (NO. & IT	(FC)		7	25X1
1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occupied to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.    1	REMARKS						A PARTIE OF THE PARTIES OF THE PARTI
1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occupied to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.		STREET, S. C.	Marie Control State Control St
1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occupied to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.    10							Martine la martine de la companya d
1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occupied to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.		25X1
1. From 10 to 16 June 1953, Camp Nochten was occupied to capacity by KVP in a strength of between 2000 and 3000 men. Extensive construction work was under way in the camp, with lumber continuously arriving.
3. A Soviet kommendatura on Hegel Promenade in Weisswasser which was staffed with 12 soldiers wearing black-bordered claret epaulets was the only Soviet unit in the town during the period  4. From 16 to 18 June 1953, Camp Weisswasser was vacated by KVP.  Removable equipment of the units was stored in the ration supply depot.  Martial law was declared in Weisswasser on 17 May. KVP patrolled the streets. On 18 May, the town was enclosed by 12 T-34/85 tanks  About 1.20 soldiers wearing red-bordered black ensulets restored order in the town. Machine guns were emplaced outside the town. Motorvehicles seen at the komendatura  1. Comment. On 9 June 1953, Nochten was occupied by an estimated 2500 soldiers  occupation was also observed from 12 to 14 June. Until 12 June the occupation of the camp grew, and billeting equipment as well as fuel arrived.  It is therefore doubted that the 30 boxcars made available on 15 June should have been connected with an evacuation of the troop training grounds planned prior to the uprising. Rather, it is believed that the units left upon completion of their training.  2. Comment. The KVP in East Ger any was probably faced unexpectedly with the riots and was alerted.	( 1	to be made av upon de	they were so parture of t eavy weapons	the KVP at the cheduled to be this train, add s had to be made	e Weisswasser loaded at nig litional cars le available.[	railroad sta ht on 15 Jun except cars	tion. e and for the
4. From 16 to 18 June 1953, Camp Weisswasser was vacated by KVP.  Removable equipment of the units was stored in the ration supply depot.  Martial law was declared in Weisswasser on 17 May. KVP patrolled the streets. On 18 May, the town was enclosed by 12 T-34/85 tanks  About 120 soldiers wearing red-bordered black enaulets restored order in the town. Machine guns were emplaced outside the town. Motorvehicles seen at the komendatura  1. Comment. On 9 June 1953, Nechten was occupied by an estimated 2500 soldiers occupation was also observed from 12 to 14 June. Until 12 June the occupation of the camp grew, and billeting equipment as well as fuel arrived.  It is therefore doubted that the 30 boxcars made available on 15 June should have been connected with an evacuation of the troop training grounds planned prior to the uprising. Rather, it is believed that the units left upon completion of their training.  2. Comment. The KVP in East Ger any was probably faced unexpectedly with the riots and was alerted.		3. A Soviet komm staffed with	endatura on 12 soldiers	Hegel Promenad	le in Weisswas -bordered clar	ser which wa	.8
Removable equipment of the units was stored in the ration supply depot.  Martial law was declared in Weisswasser on 17 May. KVF patrolled the streets. On 18 May, the town was enclosed by 12 T-34/85 tanks  About 120 soldiers wearing red-bordered black engulets restored order in the town. Machine guns were emplaced outside the town. Motorvehicles seen at the komendatura  1. Comment. On 9 June 1953, Nochten was occupied by an estimated 2500 soldiers  occupation was also observed from 12 to 14 June. Until 12 June the occupation of the camp grew, and billeting equipment as well as fuel arrived.  It is therefore doubted that the 30 boxcars made available on 15 June should have been connected with an evacuation of the troop training grounds planned prior to the uprising. Rather, it is believed that the units left upon completion of their training.  Comment. The KVP in East Ger any was probably faced unexpectedly with the riots and was alerted.	(1
About 120 soldiers wearing red-bordered black engulets restored order in the town. Machine guns were emplaced outside the town. Motorvehicles seen at the komendatura  1. Comment. On 9 June 1953, Nochten was occupied by an estimated 2500 soldiers    Soldiers	[1A	Removable equ Martial law w	ipment of that declared	he units was st in Weisswasser	cored in the r on 17 May. F	ration supply WP patrolled	the
1. Comment. On 9 June 1953, Nochten was occupied by an estimated 2500 soldiers  occupation was also observed from 12 to 14 June. Until 12 June the occupation of the camp grew, and billeting equipment as well as fuel arrived.  It is therefore doubted that the 30 boxcars made available on 15 June should have been connected with an evacuation of the troop training grounds planned prior to the uprising. Rather, it is believed that the units left upon completion of their training.  2. Comment. The KVP in East Ger any was probably faced unexpectedly with the riots and was alerted.	(1	black epaulet	s restored o	About 12 order in the to	20 soldiers we own. Machine g	earing red-bo guns were emp occupation of the camp grew, and billeting equipment as well as fuel arrived.  It is therefore doubted that the 30 boxcars made available on 15 June should have been connected with an evacuation of the troop training grounds planned prior to the uprising. Rather, it is believed that the units left upon completion of their training.  Comment. The KVP in East Ger any was probably faced unexpectedly with the riots and was alerted.	. 1	Comment	on 9 June	e 1953, Nochter	n was occupied	l by an estir	nated 2500 This
Comment. The KVP in East Ger any was probably faced unexpectedly with the riots and was alerted.	(1	occupation of made availabl	'the camp gr	rew, and billed . It is theres	ting equipment fore doubted t	t as well as that the 30 k	fuel arrived.
CLASSIFICATION SECRETA	(1 ;	believed thet	training gr	ounds planned	prior to the t	uprising. Rat	cuation ther, it is believed that	training grate the units :	ounds planned p left upon comp in East Ger an	prior to the t letion of the	uprising. Rat ir training.	ther, it is